Weekly Journal Entry

Name: Brayan Guillermo Garcia

Date(s): 7/17 - 7/23/23

Monday

I got the opportunity to attend the swearing-in Ceremony for Xochitl Torres Small. Then I got to the office and worked on my testimony that I was going to use to share in a meeting at the White House with my coworker.

Tuesday

I attended a meeting in the morning with my supervisor with members of Congress. I got an opportunity to share my story and give feedback on the policies in Congress. Furthermore, I attended a meeting at the white house where I got to share my testimony. It was a good experience because I got to talk about my experience working in the fields to help create a policy that will help other farmworkers.

Wednesday

I got the opportunity to attend a reunion at the Department of Education meeting where I saw my CAMP director, Ivan Olay. I had a great time there and we talked about our internship experience.

Thursday

I was honored to be able to attend meetings with my CAMP director Ivan and talk to different members of Congress. When I returned to the office I worked on my final project and created a new blueprint for my website.
