

Washington D.C. Internship: Summer 2024

Vision statement: "To improve the quality of life for farmworkers through education"

Internship Information

The HEP/CAMP Association Board instituted the D.C. internship program in 2005. In 2006, two interns were selected for Rep. Ruben Hinojosa's office and the Office of Migrant Education. The ten week internship program is funded by the Association and takes place in the summer.

Past Placements:

- White House Initiative on Educational Excellence for Hispanics
- United Farm Workers of America (UFW)
- Congressional Hispanic Leadership Institute (CHLI)
- United States Department of Agriculture
- League of United Latin American Citizens
- House of Representative Offices: Xavier Becerra, Lucille Roybal Allard, and Raúl Grijalva
- Senate Offices: Jeff Merkley, Kristen Gillibrand, Marco Rubio, and Chuck Schumer

Selected participants will receive:

- Round-trip transportation to Washington, D.C.
- Housing at George Washington University
- Stipend of $4500
- Professional Clothing Allowance
- Leadership training with CHCI, networking and community service opportunities
- Social and cultural experience in D.C.

2023-2024

Tentative Timeline

December: Application opens

February: Application due & reviewed

March: Internship candidates selected

Program Date: May 25 - August 3

Apply Now!

Website: hepcampassociation.org

@National HEP CAMP Association

@hepcamp

Eligibility

Current CAMP participant or HEP graduate who has completed at least one term in a post secondary institution

Complete Application Form

- Personal statement
- Resume
- Two letters of recommendation
- HEP/CAMP qualifying document (COE, WIA or Employment Verification)
- School transcript
- Schedule of registered classes for the next term

Questions:

Contact: Patrick Doone
doone@usf.edu | 813-974-0915